

Quarterly Newsletter

As on June 2022

Dear Readers,

Greetings from Umang!

June newsletter marks the closure of last academic year and the beginning of the new academic year. Now we have to gear up for New Academic year as all the people have started their routine life. We were also ready for offline schooling and welcome our students with positive energy. Our teachers are ready to impart values and education as we have already planned for new academic Year. Umang is catering to impart common goals in all our branches and also take responsibility of caring our students and promoting excellent learning environment to our students.

New Staff

Each year brings positive change. This includes a few addition to our staff. We are delighted to welcome Mrs Reetu Patil as a Project Co-ordinator for our 3 branches as Our past Co-ordinator is leaving this job for here future endeavour. We are fortunate to have Mrs Sunita Vazarkar as vocational teacher, she will help our students learn new vocational skills and also help them to rehabilitate in near future.

Teacher's Orientation

Teaching is the greatest act of optimism

On this positive note we start our new academic year with new ideas so teachers had orientation program on 4th June 2022 at our Umang school Vasai branch were teachers from all the 3 branches came together. We also had training for UDID which is a Unique Disability Identity card for our students and each school has to apply individually for each students.

School Re-opens

On Friday, 9th June, 2022 school re-opened for all the 3 branches at Umang.

Our Parents and students are happy to be back at school and the students are happy to meet their peer, to enjoy with them, play with each other and also study with each other.

PTA orientation meeting

As teacher geared up for the new academic year we also had to orient parents for New academic year as we updated them with the dates of important events, celebrations and NIOS exams to be held in this term. Rules and regulations to be followed by parents which are mentioned in our calendar.

Father's Day

Fathers day falls in the month of June and this day is celebrated to all the efforts and struggles of father have put down for their children. Father makes sure that he has a secure and good life. Through tough times they support us and comfort us like mother. At Umang we celebrated fathers day by making card as a token of love to our father.

Chocolate Day

International chocolate day is an annual celebration of chocolate, occurring globally on 7th July , for which some suggest to be the anniversary of the introduction of Chocolate to Europe in 1550. For our special needs children it is a treat so at our Umang school we gave them basic information about chocolate, at our Vasai branch students, also made Chocolate with their teachers help which was a delight.

World Environment Day

World Environment day is celebrated to create awareness about conservation of our environment and to take preventive measures to avert the effects of Global warming. We at Umang school took a small initiative in this and planted a mango tree with our childrens and it was a wonderful experience to them.

Rakhi celebration

The festival is made up of two words, namely Raksha and Bandhan which signifies protection and togetherness. It is a unique bond between brother and sister to celebrate this bond we at our Umang school also celebrate this occasion of Rakhi with all the girls who tie Rakhi to boys and in return they give gift to them and enjoy the event.

Independence day celebration and Sanskrit day

This year on 15th August we will be celebrating 75th Independence day, with the usual pride to mark its freedom from British rule so our students were said to come in fancy dress as a Patriotic leader and freedom fighter they performed skit, sang song and also did dancing performance to celebrate the event.

We also celebrated Sanskrit day where our students said different shlokas and Bhajans in front of their teachers and friend which also helped to boost their confidence.

Dahi Handi celebration

Janmashtami is celebrated as birthday of Lord Krishna this day signifies goodwill and the victory of good over Evil. Dahi handi is an Integral part of Janmashtami celebration. Our Bal Gopals were also ready to break dahi handi at Umang with lots of Joy and enthusissm.

UMANG has remained committed, is committed and will remain committed to the interest of our specially - abled children, always.

Wishing everyone good health in days to come
